MONTREAL • WHAT'S NEW: MARCH 2010

SPRING AWAKENING: THE CITY'S FRESHEST FINDS ARE GUARANTEED TO PUT YOU IN THE SEASONAL SPIRIT. —JANNA ZITTRER

LOLA & EMILY

What: The much-loved shop now has a second location in Westmount filled with even more frilly finds from the likes of Amanda Uprichard and Filipa K.

Why: Twice is nice.

Where: 4920 Sherbrooke St. W., 514-483-4040.

BBQ MONTREAL

What: The folks behind Bar & Boeuf bring you a brand new eatery featuring comfort food with a trendy twist (à la rib burger with pecorino and tomato confit).

Why: You're grill seeker.

Where: 372 St-Paul St. W., 514-284-0444.

L'APOTHICAIRE

What: A new line of handmade bath and body products crafted locally in small batches from botanic ingredients like shea butter and sweet almond oil.

Why: They do the bath and body good.

Where: At Dars Ta Bulle, 514-842-3019.

FURI

What: The Montreal-based brand's first outerwear collection includes pretty pastel coats that are right on-trend for spring.

Why: You dig the trench.

Where: At Mimi & Coco., 514-906-0349.

CRI DE COEUR

What: The eco-friendly footwear line features strappy sandals and vibrant pumps that make for some chic carbon-free footprints.

Why: You'll hear these soles.

Where: At Duckie Shoes, 514-273-3933.
